Whistleblowing

A "whistleblower" discloses information he c reasonably believes evidences:

- A violation of any law, rule or regulation
- Gross mismanagement
- A gross waste of funds
- An abuse of authority
- A substantial and specif to public health
- A substantial and specif to public safety

The Office of Special Counsel (OSC) provides a secure channel thro current and former federal employees and applicants for federal em make confidential disclosures. OSC evaluates the disclosures to dete there is a substantial likelihood that one of the categories listed abov disclosed. If such a determination is made, OSC has the authority t head of the agency to investigate the matter.

To make a disclosure contact: